

Delivery Instructions:

Merchandise is shipped through a contracted freight company who will contact the consumer to set up an appropriate delivery time. Contracted freight companies provide tailgate delivery only. The driver is not required to unload to the curb, bring merchandise into your home, uncrate, install or remove packing materials. If consumer needs to make special delivery arrangements, those arrangements must be made with the carrier prior to delivery. Additional charges may be incurred for special delivery arrangements. If merchandise is damaged, consumer should indicate "damaged" on the paperwork, refuse at time of delivery, and call to re-enter order.
